Q&A:

Q: How many fundraisers is my organization allowed to hold?

A: If you organization has a budget through Community Government Association (CGA) (which is not the same as a Husky Fund account), your organization may only hold two fundraisers per semester. However, you organization may complete as many service projects as they would like.

If your organization does not have budget through CGA, your organization may hold numerous fundraisers and also service projects.

As a reminder, fundraiser and service project request forms must be completed and returned to the CLE office AT LEAST two weeks prior to the event.

Click here for form.

Looking for a DJ?

Radio 91.1FM WBUQ DJ’s events! There’s over 50 DJs available to match your needs. WBUQ works with other on-campus clubs and groups to provide music for fundraisers and a variety of events.
Fundraiser Idea of the Week:
Midterm Kits!

Have your organization put together emergency midterm kits for students studying for midterms in the upcoming weeks. Each kit could be sold for $1. These kits could include a piece of candy, encouraging note, pencil/pen, highlight, paper-clips, rubber bands, etc.

Club of the Week:
N.O.R.M.L.

CLE wants to recognize and thank NORML for participating as the volunteer group in the Quest training on Sunday September 28th! NORML stands for the National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws. They advocate for policy reform regarding responsible, adult marijuana use at the local and state levels. They also educate and inform the general B.U. population on the effects and consequences of marijuana use. Contact President Paul Deppen at pjdeppen@huskies.bloomu.edu if interested in collaborating on events!

Google Calendar: If you would like your organization’s meeting dates and times added to our Google Calendar, please e-mail stgaorgs@bloomu.edu.

Pictures: Email us your organization’s pictures to stgaorgs@bloomu.edu for a possible feature!

Advertising: Is your organization looking for an outlet to advertise an event? Why not collaborate with another organization? Utilize other student organizations to market! Contact information for possible advertisement opportunities:
